It is advised to all to read the book comprehensively for greater interest of Kampur College.

Message from Principal's Desk

It gives me immense pleasure that the College is going to publish an important handbook for students and it would help in bringing discipline, punctuality and decency among the student fraternity. As we know, learning is a continuous process, but College and University level usually considered as the highest level of institution for formal learning. Student can impart knowledge from different sources and apparently apply in different capacities; but proper application is quite important. Therefore, to systematize one and all, in a given society, a handbook is essential and subsequently the initiation of Kampur College will help in bring discipline from the students end.

Apart from different rules and regulation, the book carries various information i.e. academic calendar, holiday list, different cells, and Student's Union body and so on.

Hope, different stakeholders will cooperate in the whole process for the greater interest of Kampur College.

Principal

Kampur College, Kampur, Nagaon
